1. Since the establishment of the All-China Federation of Literature and Art Circles (ACFLAC) in July 1949, few of the leading personnel have been changed.* However, since February 1950, CH'EN Ch'i-hsia (陳企霞) has replaced CHOU Wei-chih (周維峙) as assistant secretary-general of the ACFLAC and LAO She (老舍), aka SHU She-yu (舒舍予), SHAO Ch'uan-lin (邵荃麟), SUN Fu-yuan (孫伏園), AI Wu (艾蕪), and SHA Ting (沙汀) have been made additional members of the ACFLAC National Committee.
2. For the cultivation of new literature and art cadres, the Ministry of Culture, together with the ACFLAC, has prepared to establish a Central Literature Research Institute. The preparatory committee for the establishment of the institute, scheduled to open in late 1950, is as follows:

TING Ling (丁玲), chairman.

K'ANG Cho (康濯).

CHANG T'ien-i (張天翼), vice-chairman.

LI Kuang-t'ien (李廣田).

CH'EN Ch'i-hsia

LI Po-chao (李伯釗).

CHIANG T'ien-tso (蔣天佐).

SHA K'o-fu (沙可夫).

HO Ch'i-fang (何其芳).

T'IEH Chien (田間).

HUANG Yao-mien (黃藥眠).

YANG Hui (楊晦).

The first research group will contain 60 members drawn from the literature workers of the administrative areas, major cities and army groups. The main courses of the institute will be in Marxism, Leninism, ideas of MAO Tse-tung, fundamental national reconstruction policies, new literature and art, Soviet literature, and history of new literature.

3. The following are lists of members of local ACFLAC committees:

- a. The preparatory committee for the establishment of the Central and South China Federation of Literature and Art Circles is headed by HSIUNG Fu (熊復) with LO Wen (駱文) as secretary-general.

TS'AO Yu (曹禺).

YANG Shao-hsuan (楊紹宣).

5. The main function of the ACFLAC in Communist China is to publicize political movements. In February 1950 when the victory bond movement was under way, the campaign was promoted through all possible forms of literature and art, as was the Stockholm Peace Appeal in June 1950. In coordination with the Anti-America and Aid Korea movement in November 1950, the ACFLAC established an Anti-America and Aid Korea Publicity Committee, with the following members:

HUNG Ling, chairman.

HSU Pei-hung (徐悲鴻).

LI Po-chao, vice-chairman.

HUNG Shen

CHANG Chih-hsiang (張致祥).

LAO She

CHAO Shu-li

OU-YANG Yu-ch'ien.

CH'EN I (陳沂).

SHIA K'o-fu

CHOU Wei-chih

SHIAO Ch'uan-lin (邵荃麟).

TS'AI Jo-hung (蔡若虹).

The activities of the committee included publishing pamphlets, designing posters, planning radio broadcasts, and organizing conferences on the topic "Anti-America and Aid Korea". To take the lead in forming volunteers to fight in Korea, on 8 November 1950 HUNG Shen, CHAO Shu-li, TUAN-LIN Kung-liang (團林公良), FENG Tzu (鳳子)

WANG Ya-p'ing, LI Yuen-nan (李劫南), HSIN Ta-ming (辛大明) and a number of other literature and art workers announced that they would join the army.
